To build consistent high quality instructional practice across the school.

Develop and implement a whole school approach to student empowerment and ownership of learning.

Establish collective accountability for the assessment and monitoring of the progress of individual students, cohorts of students and the school as a whole.